Patient of the Week

Kerry S

An integral part of my body's transformation!

I met Dr. Pat way back in 2004!

I had been sporadic in my visits over the years, but always knew who to come back to when I needed an adjustment. Dr. Pat also adjusted my children over the years - we all love our visits.

In 2011, sick and very overweight, I began a journey to transform my body and Dr. Pat has been an integral part of that. My nutrition program, along with my weekly adjustments have allowed me to release 70 lbs since 24 August 2011! Thank you, Dr. Pat for keeping me so "well adjusted" over the years!

The patients who get the best results, are the ones that follow through with their recommendations!
