

"Patient with 15 year history of worsening tremors in the arms and extreme low back pain.

Unable to drink a glass of water do to extreme shaking. Side view of neck shows very restricted motion when looking up. 4 days later able to drink a glass of water for the 1st time in over a year and normal motion returning to the spine as the back of the skull approaches the shoulders"

Before

After